

Area News – Amnesty International Enrich

Something you can look forward to ...

Our Amnesty International group has been meeting every two weeks and taking action on Human Rights around the world. Following our amazing Write for Rights event, we have not lost momentum, and we've written to governments and organisations around the world. We have a great group of enthusiastic students who love meeting, having lunch and chatting about human rights!