

Area News - Mathematics

What have we been up to?

We have been helping students to develop their problem solving and proof skills in preparation for the exams. We have been encouraging students to work together to develop these skills.

Recently in lessons we have been ... Recently in college students have been completing the maths challenge and further maths students have taken part in Ritangle competition. This is something for you to look forward to.

